

RE/MAX Agent Pete Veres Earns Lifetime Achievement Award

Albuquerque, New Mexico – Pete Veres, CRS with RE/MAX Elite has been presented with the prestigious RE/MAX Lifetime Achievement Award, which honors highly successful agents who have one of the highest level of transactions, sales volume and have completed seven years of service with the company. Less than six percent of all of the more than 115,000 active agents in the RE/MAX global network have achieved this prestigious award since its inception.

“Pete’s tireless dedication to serving his clients, consumers and community has allowed Pete to achieve this high honor,” said Broker/Owner Brian Stofac, Broker/Owner of the RE/MAX Elite. “Winning this award is a significant accomplishment and we’re extremely proud that Pete is a member of our team.”

Veres has been working in the real estate industry for more than 20 years and has extensive experience in listing homes and also working with buyers. Among Veres’ list of achievements, he has earned the RE/MAX Hall of Fame award and is a member of the RE/MAX Platinum Club. Pete also holds several very important designations including CRS – Certified Residential Specialist, CLHMS – Certified Luxury Home Marketing Specialist, SRES – Senior Real Estate Specialist and also an ABR, Accredited buyers Representative.

In addition, Veres actively supports Stand True 4 Blue, a local organization that supports law enforcement through positive visual presence within the community.
